

Sail to Alaska and Discover it's Orthodox Christian Roots

14 Day Cruise: July 27—August 10, 2015

Now's your chance to visit some of the most important sights for American Orthodox Christians. This is the mission territory of St. Innocent, St. Juvenaly & St. Herman.

Visit some of the most important sights in Alaskan Orthodox Christian history. Sail through America's last frontier. And enjoy locally inspired cuisine onboard ship. Explore the beauty and spiritual depth of historic Orthodox Christian sites.

Prices start at $ 2,379.00*/person

Additional details available at:

www.TravelOrthodoxy.com

Culturally Creative Travel 713-688-6793

*inside cabin, double occupancy, taxes of $366.43/person & gratuities not included in price, single occupancy is at 200%. Triple and quad cabins are available, contact us for a complete quote. Staterooms are not guaranteed until secured with passenger names and full deposit.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to explore the rich heritage and legacy of the Orthodox Church in Alaska.

- Dinner credit at Caneletto
- $25pp shipboard credit
- Private Cocktail Party

Benefiting the Orthodox Christian Mission Center

Highlights include:

Anchorage, AK: enjoy a private excursion to:

- Eklutna Village and St. Nicholas Church and the "spirit houses"
- St. Innocent Cathedral and the Orthodox Museum
- Learn about the local culture at the Alaskan Native Heritage Center
- $149/person (min 8 people)

Homer, AK

- Transfiguration of our Lord Chapel – subject of many famous painters
- Historic Church of the Holy Assumption of the Virgin Mary – just up the road in Kenai, AK+
(+ requires additional transportation/cost)

Kodiak, AK

- St. Herman Seminary – visit with seminary students in residence
- Pray before the relics of St. Herman at Holy Resurrection Orthodox Cathedral

Sitka, AK

- Visit the historic Bishop's House and St. Michael the Archangel Cathedral, home to St. Innocent.
- Visit to the grave site of St. Jacob, enlightener of Alaska
- Venerate of the miracle working icon – Sitka Madonna

Cruise Alaska's Orthodox Christian Heritage

Visit some of the most important sights in Alaskan Orthodox Christian history. Sail through America's last frontier. And enjoy locally inspired cuisine onboard ship. Explore the beauty and spiritual depth of historic Christian sites. Cruises and tours specifically designed for Orthodox Christians and those who love traditional Christianity.

Culturally Creative Travel is a travel and tour company that provides customized travel experiences focusing on trips that engage all five senses, personalized for individuals and groups. We're group travel experts... we can help your group explore the great sites and cultures of the world, both at home and abroad. We build custom designed tours and/or fund-raising cruises to meet certain revenue goals for your organization, or request the tour or cruise be designed and priced just for the enjoyment of the group members.

Join us for a 14 Day Pilgrimage Cruise to some of Alaska's most important historic sites for the Orthodox Church. We'll have the opportunity to:

- Pray before the relics of St. Herman & St. Jacob
- Visit some of the oldest Orthodox Parishes in North America
- Explore the beauty and spiritual depth of historic Christian sites

Sail to Alaska and Discover it's Orthodox Christian Roots - Now's your chance to visit some of the most important sights for American Orthodox Christians. This is the mission territory of St. Innocent, St. Juvenaly & St. Herman. Highlights include Anchorage, Kodiak, Homer, & Stika. Benefiting the OCMC.